

Satellite Meeting 2014

*IFLA, Section « PEB et fourniture de documents »
Inist-CNRS, Nancy, 13 & 14 août 2014*

13.8

Keynote

- Raymond Berard, Director of Inist
Academia and document supply: unsustainable contradictions?

Session 1

- Peter D. Collins, University of Pennsylvania, USA
Revolutionizing resource sharing: lessons from eCommerce
- Richard Ebdon, The British Library, UK
A changing service for a changing landscape
- Jacqueline Gillet, Inist, France
A review of interlending and document supply in France

Session 2

- Helen Sakrihei, National Library, Norway
Automatic storage and retrieval system for ILL: experiences from the Repository Library on Norway
- Clare MacKeigan, Relais International, Canada
Interoperability for ILL and resource Sharing - (slides non transmises)

Session 3

- Sara Gould, The British Library
Opening access to UK doctoral theses: an update of the EThoS E-theses service
- Silvana Mangiaracina, Ornella Russo, Alessandro Tugnoli, Bologna Research Area Library, CNR, Italy
ALPE: an Italian project for sharing and checking interlibrary loan permitted use in e-resource licenses
- Henrik Haagenen, The State and University Library, Aarhus, Denmark
Electronic article delivery in Denmark – digitization on demand

14.8

Keynote

Jim Neal, Columbia University, USA

Resource sharing chaos: Working through the opportunities for radical collaboration and systemic partnership

Session 4

- Katie Birch, OCLC, Samantha Tillet, The British Library
From ILL to online ordering? An improved service for OCLC and British Library users
- Traute Braun-Gorgon, Subito, Germany
Subito – new developments in document delivery: German copyright law and its consequences, Subito service China direct and delivery from electronic resources
- Alexander Plemnek, Natalia Sokolova, Rustam Ustanov, St. Petersburg State Polytechnical University, Russia
Consortia portal for sharing resources of Russian libraries

Session 5

- Tina Baich, IUPUI University Library, USA
Open Access: A help or a hindrance to resource sharing
- Yao Xiaoxia, CALIS, Peking University, China
Cooperative purchase and utilization: an effective way of resource sharing – the study on PQDT full text database

Session 6

- Lydia Namugera, Caroline Kobusingye, Makerere University Library, Uganda:
Makerere University's pivotal role in library consortium and resource sharing in Uganda
- Steven Marvin, West Chester University, USA
Library consortia in Latin America: Resource Sharing in Developing Countries